

2 Named Directors Of Amoss Agency

Brig. Gen. Thomas B. Catron 2d, of Baltimore, and E. Stuart Bushong, of Hagerstown, have been named directors of the International Services of Information Foundation, a private intelligence agency, it was announced yesterday by Col. Ulius L. Amoss (USAF, retired) head of the organization.

Richard F. Cleveland has been made chairman of the Board of Trustees.

THE SUN, BALTIMORE, MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 29, 1953
